April 13 — “New Author” talk by Lynn Russo Whylly. Have you always wanted to write a book but haven’t been able to get started or you started but haven’t been able to finish it? You are about to be inspired. Lynn Russo Whylly, our very own editor, will be coming in to speak about the writing, editing, publishing, sales and marketing process involved with her very first novel, In Fashion’s Web, which she self-published on Amazon.com. A writer and editor for 20 years, Lynn is excited to share her experiences with you and to answer any questions you have about the book-writing process.

April 20 — Living La Dolce Vita! If you can’t fly to Italy this spring, then the next best thing would be to attend our meeting to hear speaker, Raeleen D’Agostino Mautner PhD. Raeleen has been a psychology professor who enjoys talking to groups like ours about her passion for Italy and will tell us how we can bring more zest into our lives, the Italian way. More information on page 3.

“Shoulders back! Heads up! Stand tall!” Glenda Bloom, exercise coach at the NY Sports Club, called out to us at our March 9th meeting in Parish Hall. “You’ve got to own it! Now march around the room with energy! Show me ATTITUDE! ATTITUDE! ATTITUDE!” Before we knew it, Glenda’s commands started to take their affect on each of us and we came alive, full of energy and enthusiasm. By the end of the class, we were determined to continue more workouts by signing up for her Silver Sneakers program.

Glenda’s words go beyond just exercise and a healthy body. The power of attitude penetrates every part of our lives. Take a look at our very own Greenwich Club.....Have you noticed how so many of our members walk around with ATTITUDE? You can spot them a mile away. They are the ones who possess a take-charge spirit, looking for ways to pitch in, to offer ideas and, best of all, to lead our programs. How grateful we feel toward all those wonderful people who have brought us so many evenings of fun and friendship.

Now, take a look ahead.... Let’s not wait for those same people to keep us going. If you haven’t yet developed attitude, now is a perfect time for you to take a deep breath and plunge in. First, do some reflecting about what you would like to do. This is a social club where the main goal is to have fun. What gives you special joy? What do you feel passionate about? What kind of thing will make you feel good about yourself, knowing that you are helping out in some way? Next, send an email or give a call to any of us on the Board. The trick is to think like a CEO with Greenwich Club as your very own corporation. Nourish it, protect it, embrace it! That’s ATTITUDE!

St. Patrick’s Day bagpipers transformed Zody’s into a little bit of Ireland. Cheers and beers!
Pickleball
Come see the action! Would you like to drop in to see what Pickleball is all about?
It is easy to learn (a much faster learning curve than tennis) and gaining steadily in popularity across the U.S. It is being played in many towns, day and night, inside and outside: Greenwich (also offers lessons), Norwalk, New Canaan, Ridgefield.

You can do a Google search on “Pickleball” or just copy this link and take a look:
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=YGGQk9H62Qo

There is a local round robin tournament for men and women all day on Saturday, April 2 at the Eastern Greenwich Civic Center (corner of Forest Ave. and Harding Rd., Old Greenwich - near exit 5 on I95).

Let’s go over at noon and take a look. Andrea will save some seats. No RSVP necessary. No charge.
Coordinator: Andrea Anthony

“The Ice Cream Queen of Orchard Street,” by Susan Jane Gilman. As a child in 1913, Malka Treynovsky flees Russia for NY with her family only to be crippled and abandoned in the streets. Taken in by a tough-loving Italian ices peddler, Malka survives. When she falls in love with Albert, they set off together across America in an ice cream truck to seek their fortune; slowly, she transforms herself into Lillian Dunkle, “The Ice Cream Queen of America”--doyenne of an empire of ice cream franchises and a celebrated television personality.
