BOARD CORNER

We rang out 2016 with much gaiety and in style at the beautiful Shorehaven Club House. We had 60 attendees in addition to Escapades. A good time was had by all as is witnessed in the photos on the right!

Remembering Ken Finn.....

Ken was a long standing member of our Club... including when we were known as the Cotton Club. Over the years, he graciously volunteered many hours at our outreach events, and moderated interesting discussion groups at our Wednesday meetings. Jay Kane has kindly shared this story of him.

"Ken, who was a trained MIT engineer, loved to collect antique tools, machinery, engines, etc. One day he ordered some old blasting caps he noticed for sale on the Internet. Several days later, two FBI Agents appeared at his home in Bedford, invited themselves in and searched for explosives or other signs of terrorist activities. Ken had unknowingly placed his order with an FBI website designed to catch people of ill will.

Many of Ken's friends at the Club thought this was hilarious because Ken, who enjoyed writing poetry, was the complete opposite of the type of person the FBI was trying to find. After this happened, Ken decided to obtain a pistol license. Guess who he used for his references: The two FBI Agents!"

Ken will be very sadly missed by all who were fortunate to know him.
