BOARD CORNER

At our September Board meeting, we heartily welcomed one of our past presidents, Andrea Anthony, as an Advisor to the Board. In addition, Andrea will take on the role of Chairperson of the monthly newsletter. This responsibility has been skillfully managed for over two years, by Del Zalesky, our Treasurer.

To you, Del, as the major force behind our consistently artful and impressive newsletters, we offer you a big thank you and congratulations! Continuing the publication of a high quality newsletter will be made easier because Andrea, as many of our members will recall, has been our newsletter editor in the past, from 2010 to 2013. We feel very fortunate that she is returning to both of these leadership positions, where her experience and creative talents will serve us well.

Thank you, Andrea, for taking on both roles.

Ben Franklin once said: "Hide not your talents, they for use were made. [For] What's a sundial in the shade?"

Our September activities would have pleased Ben Franklin because so many of our members enthusiastically offered us their various talents to make the month really shine. So, before we move on into October, I would like to say thank you, from all of us, to those who made special contributions.

Thanks so much to Carolyn Moller and Winnie Walsh for hosting our fall social and bringing us guitarist, "Richie G." Thanks to Darby Callahan for telling us all about the Chincoteague Island ponies. Thanks to Roselee Nichols for doing the "Dining Adventure" restaurant research and finding us "The Famous Greek Kitchen."

Thanks to Cathy Sidor for organizing our "Coastal Cleanup." And thank you to our Real Estate Panel: Angelo Avitabile, Ginny Hamilton, and Elsie Pecorin. There also are many others for whom space prevents us from mentioning, who have lent us their help in quiet, but valuable ways.

So now on to our October calendar of events. More talented members! More joyful moments!

Member's Corner

It's October, and 2016 will be here much too quickly. Therefore, we're thinking ahead regarding the 2016 dues, and are doing something different.

To avoid the crush of the hectic holiday season, we will be emailing a "new" membership form in mid October offering a discount for early payment.

If the dues are paid before January 1, 2016, instead of $45, it will be only $40 for the entire 2016 calendar year.

Del Zalesky, Treasurer

Book Club, October 22

The Book Group meets on the fourth Thursday of the month at 1:30 p.m. at Ann Sexton's house, 57 Drum Hill Lane, Stamford, CT.
